

Community Involvement Activities – Ashland/NSP

January – March 2005

The following is a list of planned community involvement activities for the first quarter of 2005:

- Finalize ✓ and distribute CIP (January/February)
- Set up repositories at Vaughn and Bad River Tribal Libraries and at the Red Cliff Natural Resources office. (January/February)
- Mail CIP Fact Sheet and mail response card. (February)
- Update DNR web page to incorporate CIP, CIP Fact Sheet ✓, Revised History Fact Sheet ✓, and reference to SigO ✓. (January/February)
- Update mailing list based on responses received from CIP mailing (February/March)
- Develop and maintain a list of community events. Identify events that present an opportunity to provide outreach. (ongoing)
- Hold availability sessions at the Black Cat Café and Vaughn Library or Hotel Chequamegon on work plan. Work on logistics and public notice for the event. (February)
- Prepare display board material. (February/ongoing)
- EPA to prepare press release on work plan. (February)
- Contact interested parties regarding structure of Superfund 101. (January/February)
- Begin work on outdoor displays with an April completion date. Coordinate efforts with Jim Struck City of Ashland Public Works Director. (February to April)
- Monitor press for stories on the site. (ongoing)
- Work on logistics for Superfund 101 (February/March)
- EPA to coordinate mailing for and conducting of Superfund 101 course. (February/March)
- DNR to talk to city about the possibility of better signage on the well houses. (February/March)